We are excited about your interest in the Daytona Beach Symphony Guild, a non-profit organization created in 1955. Music matters in enhancing the quality of life in the surrounding community. The Guild seeks to promote and to fund music education through its support of the Daytona Beach Symphony Society. We engage all segments of our population in developing music appreciation and cultivate opportunities for visibility within the community at large.

The Guild meets from October through May on the first Monday of each month. Each year the Guild's approximately 300 members help to reach adults and children in Daytona Beach and surrounding communities through educational programs and fundraising efforts.

The Guild has many volunteer opportunities. Whether you have a small amount of time or would like the chance to exercise your leadership skills, we have the position for you. The Guild offers members a chance to utilize skills they may have acquired through personal or professional pursuits. Additionally, the Guild offers "friendraising" opportunities as we interact with each other and the musical community.

Over 2000 students enjoy concerts and are provided transportation and refreshments. Learning opportunities are created as students talk with the performers and conductors.
